Employee Safety Guidelines

As an employee of Miller Construction, Inc., you will find that we are a safety conscious organization. We are concerned for the safety and well being of each one of our employees. It is our every intention to comply with the Federal and State Occupational Safety and Health regulations, thereby achieving a safe working environment for you.

To enable us to do this, a degree of responsibility falls on you as you do your day to day activities. As an employee of Miller Construction, Inc., and as your part of our Safety Program, it is your responsibility to:

1. Wear protective clothing and shoes appropriate for your work environment. Tennis shoes, sneakers and sandals are not acceptable foot wear.
2. Obtain and use hard hats, protective eye-wear and other protective gear as needed from your superintendent or foreman.
3. Maintain a clean work area at all times thereby eliminating tripping, fire and other health hazards.
4. Report any unsafe conditions or acts to your foreman or superintendent.
5. Report any injuries whether to your self or to other immediately to your foreman or superintendent. Each work-related injury or accident will be investigated for its validity.
6. Inspect hand tools and power tools (whether your own or company equipment) for breaks, defective parts, excessive wear, breaks in electrical wiring, etc. before use.
7. Adhere to the proper methods of constructing and erecting ladders and scaffolding, using toeboards, guardrails and outriggers as required. At no time will you climb and elevation without a properly secured ladder or scaffold.
8. At all times you will adhere to all safety regulations as set forth by the Federal and State (SHAS-MOSH-VOSH) governments and by Company Policy. Any willful violations can be considered ground for dismissal.
9. Eliminate any and all horse-play while on the job site or on company time.
10. It is against Company Policy for any employee to working while taking or under the influence of medicine or drugs (unless prescribed and advised by a doctor) or alcoholic beverages. Any such violations will be considered ground for immediate dismissal.
11. You will not bring any unauthorized tools, firearms or explosives to your job site.
12. Watch where you are stepping whether walking, climbing or whatever motion you are involved and work according to good safety practices.

I hereby acknowledge my safety responsibilities and I have received other company safety rules for my keeping:

Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note:

Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents.

When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of
